

SOCIETY

THE first of the debutante teas has been given and the list of the buds, subject to due revision, is settling down into something like correct personalities and numbers. The list as previously published, has been charmingly augmented since by the names of Miss Emily Lyman, Miss Emily Clark, Miss Mary Chalmers, Miss Carrie Lee Wadley and Miss Alice Nelson.

The cotillions of the Monday and Tuesday German Clubs, to which the debutantes naturally look forward, will be preceded by the Thanksgiving dance, with the University of Virginia boys to lend it spice and flavor, and by the initiatory and complimentary tea, luncheon and dinner dances, which are always given in compliment to the charming young Richmond girls who annually make their bow to society.

The month of November has begun with enough bright sunshine to make the forecast for Thanksgiving and the numerous entertainments scheduled for that season very gay in prospect.

A number of more important and formal functions are being arranged for the early winter. In these, the debutantes, of course, will be leading and graceful figures.

It would seem that October had claimed enough Richmond brides to render the autumn list complete, but November will divide honors with October, and the interest in what maids of honor and bridesmaids are to wear, and what flowers develop the prettiest color scheme in decoration, are still topics of absorbing and continuous conversation.

A large delegation of Richmond women will turn their faces westward this week, when the Daughters of the Confederacy here leave for Little Rock, Ark., where the general convention of that body is to be held this year. There is a decided rivalry between Richmond and Washington in regard to whether the next convention shall be held here or in the national capital, and discussions leading up to a decision are not to be interrupted.

The season has opened with the promise of much social activity, with the usual round of bridge whist and other card parties in abundance, and with the idea that there will be more than the usual amount of formal and informal entertaining done before and after the Christmas holidays.

McCarthy—Binford.
The wedding of Miss Lillian Binford, daughter of Mrs. Julian Binford, to Frank Johnston McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCarthy, was celebrated at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Second Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., pastor of the church, and the Rev. H. D. C. Maclellan, D. D., of Seventh Street Christian Church, officiating.

The church was decorated in palms and white chrysanthemums. Miss Ella Binford, the maid of honor, wore white embroidered chiffon over white satin and a big black hat, lined with soft pink chiffon. She carried an armful of pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Frank Holston, the matron of honor, was in white satin worn with a black picture hat, and also carried pink chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Gilpin, of Baltimore, and Miss Nancy Elliott, of Cincinnati, were very smart in white satin frocks, veiled with pale pink chiffon, black hats trimmed with pink chiffon and big bouquets of pink chrysanthemums.

Walter Holston, of Richmond, was best man to the groom.

The bride came in with her brother, Julian Binford, Jr. She was gowned in white duchesse satin, embroidered in white orchids, and trimmed in rose point lace. Her tulle veil had a crown of real lace and hung from a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

A reception, informal and limited to the family and bridal party, was given after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy will go abroad for their honeymoon and spend the major part of their time in Paris and London.

Among the guests from a distance to attend the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Truman A. Parker, of Leesburg, Va.; John H. Sharp, of Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. William Carson, of Riverton, N. J.; Mr. Talbot, of New York; Miss Shields, of Lynchburg, Va.; and Mesdames Yarbrough, of Staunton, Va.

Proctor—Swann.
Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell Orlick Swann, 112 West Grace Street, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances Alexander, to Henry Garland Proctor.

The wedding will take place from St. Paul's church on the morning of November 22.

Hallowe'en Surprise Party.
A very delightful surprise was tendered Miss Virginia Mathews at her home on Second Avenue, Highland Park, by her friends Hallowe'en night. Games and music, including many selections on the phonograph, were indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Gertrude and Ethel Lawrence, Louise and Daisy Seay, Grace and Evelyn Haley, Clemmie Thacker, Hattie Drummond, all of Richmond, and Miss Viola Bartlett, of Highland Park. Mesdames Willie and Charlie Merriman, Howard Browning,

Old Men Retired

Industrial Concerns will Engage Only Young Men

HOW TO LOOK YOUNG IS A PROBLEM THAT CONFRONTS MILLIONS OF MEN

In these days of strenuous competition, when dividends count for more than men, the man who retains his youth is the man who holds his job the longest.

That is why one of the most successful dermatologists in Paris has warned young men to take good care of the hair. If you grow bald at 30 or 35, or even when you are older, that bald spot will, so far as appearance goes, add 10 years to your life.

Men who have hair should by all means keep it. In later years it may mean a livelihood to yourself and family. Dandruff means falling hair; falling hair means baldness. Stop falling hair and dandruff now. Go to Tragle's and get a large 50-cent bottle of Parisian Sage. They will guarantee it to stop falling hair; or drive out all dandruff and kill the dandruff germs, or money back.

Remember that the man with a bald head who seeks a position is handicapped at the start. Parisian Sage will make hair grow, will give it a lustrous appearance that denotes health and youthfulness. For sale by Tragle and druggists everywhere. Girl with Auburn hair on every bottle.

and around woody, of Richmond; Mesdames Charles Lawrence, of Leesburg, Va.; H. H. Parish, E. M. Mathews, M. A. Gann and others.

Their Fiftieth Anniversary.
In their home, 2226 Monument Avenue, on last Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Brauer celebrated their golden wedding. Sir Moses Ezekiel, of Rome, Italy, the distinguished Virginia sculptor, and Mrs. Brauer's brother, was present on this happy occasion, as were six sisters of the bride, two brothers and nine children.

The house was decorated with autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums. Numerous telegrams of congratulation and a profusion of gifts were received.

Mrs. Brauer wore an elegant satin gown, which was a gift from her brother, Sir Moses Ezekiel, as well as the gloves and fan which her mother used on the occasion of her fiftieth anniversary. Her ornaments were the brooch and earrings which her mother wore at that time.

The reunion of Mrs. Brauer's family added much to the happiness of the golden wedding day.

To Spend Winter in Europe.

Those present were Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mrs. Thomas M. Moulton, Mrs. Alice Dickinson, Miss Janie Wingo, Lieutenant-Colonel Reichelderfer, of Washington; Lieutenant Lindner, of Georgia; and Captain A. B. Bennett, Jr., of Washington, D. C.

One of the most important weddings and one of interest in Richmond was celebrated in Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Baltimore, November 3, at 6 P. M., when Miss Marla Byrd Ober was married to John Gregg Thomas, of Baltimore. Miss Ober was given away by her brother, Gustavus Ober, Jr., and was attended by Miss Rebecca Hickok as maid of honor and six bridesmaids—Miss Sophie Meltrum, of Savannah, Ga.; Miss Beatrice Barclay, of New York; Miss Louise Warwick, Miss Jean Gilmer, Miss Lydia Miller and Miss Emma Warner. An interesting wedding celebrated yesterday in St. John's Church, Fayetteville, N. C., by Rev.
